OVER THE LAST WEEK
AS OF NOVEMBER 28, 2025

QUICK TAKE

US equity indexes moved higher following more dovish comments from Fed officials. Market RISK improved last week as the VIX and MOVE indexes are now below their long-term averages.

Bears continue to outweigh bulls in retail investor surveys such as the AAll Investor Sentiment Survey. This is a positive sign for equities from a contrarian perspective in the intermediate-term model.

Market breadth improved last week as small cap stocks outperformed large cap stocks by nearly 2%. Improvement in market breadth is a positive signal for the long-term model.

A Closer Look at Our Tactical Positioning Targets

Each day, Meeder analyzes and ranks over 70 different factors from our short, intermediate, and long-term models. The dynamic statistical model incorporates factors covering macroeconomic, fundamental, trends and technical analysis to estimate the potential reward and marketplace risk of the equity markets. The Meeder Spectrum, Muirfield, Balanced, Moderate Allocation, and Conservative Allocation funds utilize this strategy for the Defensive Equity portion of their portfolios. The Defensive Equity Strategy guides the allocation of each fund's equity sleeve and the actual proportion of equity investments in any fund will vary depending on the investment objectives of the fund.

The vertical axis of the grid combines the scores of our long-, intermediate-, and short-term models to arrive at the reward value for the stock market. The horizontal axis represents the model's internal measure of stock market risk. The reward value is divided by marketplace risk to arrive at our recommended percentage of Net Equity Exposure.
